Love compelled Jesus to embrace the cross. Love drew Him there, and love held Him there. That's how much God loves you. In fact, He loves you so much that nothing can ever separate you from His love (Romans 8.38-39 ESV). Now, if Jesus was motivated by love to bring hope to a broken world, then love needs to be our motivation as well.

We should be compelled to do as He did for that woman. If we cannot publicly demonstrate our love for our brothers and sisters in Christ — regardless of their ethnicity, creed and lifestyle — then at best we mirror the priest and the Levite who passed by on the other side of the road, leaving one of God's children beaten, left for dead.

Compelled by Love. Guest Post by Rick McKinley. Last Fall I preached a sermon series at Imago Dei called Compelled by Love based on the text in 2 Corinthians 5 where Paul explains his ministry as being driven by the love of Christ. The scriptures always call us back to love as the starting point and the ending point of everything.
