Here it looks like straight has been interpreted as the head of straightforward, with forward as a postmodifier. Or maybe the straight element was picked to take the inflectional comparative suffix -er because it's more of an adjective than forward.Who knows? So the non-standard inflected comparatives do occur, but in very small numbers. You wouldn't want your grammar checker to take them ...

10 reviews of Straightforward Shooting "I took the Basic Pistol Shooting Course from Straightforward Shooting. As a novice shooter, I was immediately put at ease by Tina's welcoming style. She could answer questions from any level of student. The class was informational, organized, but most of all fun."
