One beat at a time. I'm risin' high as the sky. I want to trust someone, let my hair fall down in the fadin' sun. Won't let tonight pass me by. I'll take this pain behind the door, Take this heartache right out on the floor. I'm dancin', twirlin' all by myself. Every heartache unwinds One beat at a time. I'm dancin', twirlin' all by myself.

Inspired by all the great heart clip art that Teachers Pay Teachers members have been offering, I recently created rhythm cards showing one beat at a time. (Or two. The half note and eighth-quarter-eighth cards are 2 beats and twice as big as the one beat rhythms.) The hearts are colorful and glittery, courtesy of Glitter Meets Glue Designs.

Secondly, you had the "clap", which was caused by scraping a pencil or knuckle against the surface. Finally, to get a little melody or some bass, it required some clever vocals or beatboxing with the lips. Only the best beat makers were allowed to hold the beat for the ciphers, and for the most part, I was the top pick.
